UM INDOOR RODEO IN HAMILTON THIS WEEKEND

MISSOULA --

The annual University of Montana Indoor College rodeo is scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 17 -19, at Scheffer's Arena in Hamilton.

Performances are at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights and at 3:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Admission is $4, and preschool children with their parents will be admitted free.

According to UM rodeo advisor Bill Brown, the starting time of Sunday afternoon's performance was moved back an hour to accommodate families' Easter plans.

"We wanted people to be able to go to church, have a family dinner and still have time to come the rodeo," Brown said.

Besides teams from the University of Montana and MSU, teams from Eastern, Western and Northern Montana Colleges, and Miles, Dawson and Northwest Community Colleges will compete. The college rodeo includes a full array of rodeo events: saddle and bareback bronc riding, bull riding, steer wrestling, calf roping and team roping as well as the women's events of breakway roping, goat tying, and barrel racing.

Rodeo stock will be provided by Reg Kesler.
